

Lawyers on the move

Rogers & Co solicitors, a leading law firm based in Wolverhampton and Kidderminster has recently completed the move of its Wolverhampton office to premises in Waterloo Road.

Rogers & Co has earned its reputation as an impeccable criminal defence practice since its formation over 20 years ago.

The firm prides itself on our innovative approach and unremitting drive by providing tailored support, advice and representation to all clients, leading to a local and national reputation as a top tier firm.

Our clients instruct us because of our reputation, expertise, style and impressive track record of success.

The firm has now combined criminal defence expertise and business know how to business defence and regulatory law.

Regulatory enforcement through the criminal law has expanded significantly in recent years with the introduction of primary and secondary legislation designed to set and enforce standards for business.

Believing that prevention is better than cure, we can advise on the best methods of compliance and of avoidance of regulatory intervention and can assist with policies and procedures to comply with 'due diligence' and similar standards, including Bribery Act compliance.

Rogers & Co strives to deliver pragmatic

Solicitors Rogers & Co strives to deliver pragmatic advice in a cost effective manner advice in a cost effective manner, ever conscious of the commercial sensitivities surrounding regulatory compliance and enforcement.

Rogers & Co is able to offer advice and assistance to small and medium sized businesses concerning regulatory compliance, and more serious and complex Investigations carried out by, the Health and Safety Executive, local authorities, The Environment Agency and the Serious Fraud Office.

To coincide, Rogers & Co has expanded its Wolverhampton office to encompass three floors at 36 Waterloo Road, Wolverhampton.

To discuss any business defence or regulatory issues, please contact Gregory Burke.

Gregory Burke is a Partner and Head of Business and Regulatory Law.

Tel (01902) 310312

Email: greg.burke@rogerslaw.co.uk

Rogers & Co.

Our Business Crime & Regulatory team has the expertise to support any individual or company that has been accused of an offence

Our expertise covers all aspects of law including:

- › Environmental
- › Health & Safety
- › Trading Standards
- › Bribery & Fraud
- › Fraudulent Trading
- › Company Directors Disqualification

We offer clients the combination of business know-how and vast experience in criminal defence law, meaning we can provide advice on both technical regulatory breaches and more serious misdemeanours

Regulated by Solicitor Regulation Authority No. 360576

36 Waterloo Road, Wolverhampton WV1 4BL

T: 01902 310312 Fax: 01902 310080

www.rogerslaw.co.uk email: greg.burke@rogerslaw.co.uk

